

Dear Reflexology Student,

Thank you for your interest in the Reflexology Association of Canada's Foot Reflexology Course. As a federally chartered, not for profit association we play an active role in creating professional Reflexology Therapists and help our members accomplish their professional goals!

The primary purposes of RAC are to:

- Certify competent Reflexology Therapists;
- Set and maintain high professional standards;
- Educate the Canadian public about the benefits of reflexology;
- Provide opportunities to exchange ideas, and information.

Some of the benefits of becoming a member with RAC include:

- Chapter membership in your area;
- A national referral system for insured RCRT Reflexology Therapists;
- Conferences and annual general meetings;
- Continuing education program; hand and ear reflexology courses; teacher training program;
- Marketing and promotional material such as charts, brochures, and other products;
- The opportunity to serve on the National Board of Directors;
- The RCRT (Registered Canadian Reflexology Therapist) designation.

In choosing RAC's Foot Reflexology Course you will be taught by a professionally trained and highly skilled teacher. In addition, you will have the support of the entire National Association behind you every step of the way.

The fee includes the following:

- Course Fee: $1205.00, which includes a copy the manual, workbook, mandatory course review and all exam fees. (Please note there is no GST/HST applied to the education component of the fees).
- A one year Student Membership in RAC (renewal due annually) $75.00 plus GST/HST.
- One time Joining Fee of $75.00 plus GST/HST.

Note: Course fees may be higher if taught at a college/school, or if the teacher must travel to the course.

Course fees are to be paid in full at time of registration, using the following methods: credit card (Discover, Visa, or MasterCard), Debit, money order, or certified cheque (payable to The Reflexology Association of Canada), no personal cheques or cash will be accepted. RAC will issue a receipt for the total amount paid.

Once you have selected your course you are required to complete the "Course Registration and Student Membership Form" which your teacher can assist you in completing.
